Officer Safety Update

Janesville Police Department has obtained updated information regarding suspected anti-government/anti-authority extremist Karactus Blome:

Janesville resident, Karactus James BLOME, DOB: 05/09/1993, may use weapons in his possession to injure or assault law enforcement or other responding personnel if he feels threatened. As of early 2020, Blome continues to manufacture sulfuric acid throwers, to possess home-made sulfur-oxide "grenades," and now possesses multiple firearms, according to an identified social media account associated with Blome. Blome, a self-described individualist anarchist, indicated that he carries a loaded weapon to respond against any perceived threats to him. At this time we do not assess that Blome presents an imminent, specific threat, but we are concerned about an increased risk of injury, mishap, or unintended escalation in a potential encounter between Blome and law enforcement or other first responders.

Subject information: Karactus James BLOME, DOB: 05/09/1993; 463 Glen St, Janesville, WI 53545-2425 as of 02/06/2020. See attached photos.
